Dive Deeper into “Economics and Inequality”

- What would it mean to live in an equal society?
- Is economic inequality related to gender and racial inequality?
- Do you believe your neighborhood or city has changed because of gentrification? What has changed?
- Have you ever needed to move to a different apartment or home because of rising living costs in your community?
- Do you think there is more or less economic inequality in your country compared to others?
- Does everyone in your community have equal access to food, shelter, education, and jobs? If not, how does the lack of access to these resources impact economic success?
- How often do you think about money?
- Has COVID-19 impacted you or anyone you know economically?

ABOUT THE IDEA SCHOOL

The OneShared.World IDEA (Interdependent Education for Action) School is the educational arm of OneShared.World. The IDEA School is represented by a diverse team of college students and experienced educators from around the world. We are committed to building an interdependent society embracing economic, environmental, gender and racial justice.

ABOUT ONESHARED.WORLD

OneShared.World is a broad and inclusive movement of people in over 100 countries on five continents working collaboratively across diverse cultures, communities, ethnicities, generations, and nations to ensure a better future for humankind and the sustainability of our common home. We are building a third pillar of the global power structure beyond sovereign states and the essential international institutions our governments have created. This third pillar is a fully inclusive, global social movement and political force representing the democratic expression of our common humanity. We seek to give our common needs as humans a voice that is relevant in all major decision-making.
